Ordinary member	50%	jewel
Local sustaining member/Welcome Card holder	40%	diamond
Global sustaining member	25%	crystal
Global merit member	donation

Retreat cabin	Non-member	OM	LSM/WCH	GSM	GMM
Per night	$85	$42.50	$32	$20	Donation

The retreat cabin is fully self-contained with a single bed with pull out trundle, sofa bed, bathroom, kitchen with fridge, oven, and stove top, reverse-cycle air conditioning, covered deck, solar power, and its own water supply. Kitchen equipment and linen are supplied. There is a shared laundry in the main house.

Anyone (non-member) seeking to do a spiritual retreat can apply to book the retreat cabin through the Gakyil. Priority is given to members and member retreats under 2 weeks can be approved by the Gekö/Caretaker. Members seeking to do a longer retreat are referred to the Gakyil. The cabin is not available for holiday use.

NOTE: During retreats, teachers are given priority to the retreat cabin.

Guests and members are expected to leave the cabin clean.

Types of accommodation during retreats

Private room refers to Rosa's bedroom (Queen bed) and en suite, and Rinpoche's bedroom (Double bed) and en suite. Living spaces are shared.

Shared room refers to the rooms off the hallway, any beds in the lounge room of the house (Rinpoche's office) and any beds set up in other areas of the house during retreats. Bathroom and toilet facilities are shared.

Campsites will be allocated by the Caretaker. Campers have use of the Mandala kitchen, Gonpa bathroom, shared laundry and shared house bathroom.

Mandala kitchen

The Mandala kitchen, built in 2021, is a full kitchen located in the Mandala shed. It includes an electric oven, gas stove top, microwave, fridge, rainwater, pots, pans, crockery, utensils and cooking and tea-making basics.

The Mandala kitchen is used by community members visiting for the day, camping or staying in the house and during retreats.
